

Seventh British Columbia Paleontological Symposium

May 18-21st, 2007- Courtenay, BC

(Co-hosted by the Vancouver Island Paleontological Society and North Island College)

If you like paleontology, you will not want to miss this event! Come hear some of the latest Paleontological Abstracts to be presented at North Island College.

Highlights

World authority and researcher of ichthyosaurs, Dr. Ryosuke Motani will be our Keynote speaker.

15 speakers from BC, Alberta and Washington over 2 days with presentations at the Stan Hagen Theatre at N.I.C.

3 Paleontological field trips to collect fossils under guidance of a VIPS member.

2 Paleontological workshops, one fossil preparation and two, the study of Cephalopods past and present.

Paleontological posters of new discoveries, the latest scientific finds.

Paleontological Art Show "The Art of paleontology" at the Shadbolt Gallery.

Wine and cheese reception at the art show and Paleontological banquet at the Coast Westerly Hotel.

Symposium 2007 applications available at www.vips-fossils.com or via email danbowen@shaw.ca

